CORE COMPONENT

Vocabulary

Task Overview

In Part 2: Vocabulary, you will answer 25 questions.
This part of the test includes different types of vocabulary questions, all focusing on your understanding of meaning, use and common word combinations.
Question types include: word matching (synonyms), definitions, gapped sentences, and word pairs (collocations).

Key points:

- There are five tasks of five items each.
- Each task has a list of 10 multiple-choice options.
- Items go from basic vocabulary to phrasal verbs and idioms.
- A good score can improve your results in other components!

General strategy

- Read the sentence or tested word carefully first: can you think of a word which might fit?
- Be careful with false friends: words that look similar to words in other languages, but with a different meaning.
- 🚨 The vocabulary section can test thousands of words. Be realistic about how much you can learn before your exam.

In this chapter, you will:

- Practise the different kinds of question types.
- Review some of the common traps to avoid.
- Practise vocabulary questions in an exam-style format.

Rejecting Incorrect options

Sometimes the list of options can include words with similar meanings or false friends. In this activity you will think about why the chosen words do not fit, and think of possible correct answers!

For each sentence:

- Think why the word doesn't fit here: is the meaning incorrect? Or is it the position in the sentence?
- Try to find a correct option: if not in English, can you find a word in your language?

A: He wins a lot of money at his job.

What kind of things do we "win" in English?

Better option(s)? _____

B: Hurry, or you'll lose the bus.

If you lose your keys, what does that mean exactly? Can we "lose" a bus like this?

Better option(s)? _____

C: Can you borrow me a pen please?

When you "borrow" are you giving or taking?

Better option(s)? _____

D: I can't tolerate with this noise anymore.

What should go after the verb "tolerate"?

Better option(s)? _____

E: I'm very sensible to loud noises.

What does it mean if you make a "sensible decision"?

Better option(s)? _____

F: Trim your beard regularly so it doesn't get in your eyes.

You can trim your beard, but does it match with the end of the sentence?

Better option(s)? _____

G: We finally reached at an agreement.

What should go after the verb "reach"?

Better option(s)? _____
