WRITING PART 1

Short answers

Task Overview

In Part 1, you will answer five short messages from people in a club, course, or activity you have joined. You must reply using individual words or short phrases only (no full sentences).

Key points:

- There are 5 messages and you answer each with 1-5 words.
- Write words only (not full sentences).
- Only include the key information: You will not get a higher score for writing more than five words!
- Recommended time: 3 minutes

General strategy

- Practise as many examples as possible so you're familiar with all question types before the exam.
- Don't waste time: choose a simple, logical answer and move on. You will need more time for the later parts!
- Read the questions carefully to check the focus: eg. past / present / future?
- Practise short / informal answers, omitting words when possible.

In this chapter, you will:

- Practise common Part 1 message types (time, place, preferences, plans).
- Review typical mistakes to avoid.
- Do timed practice sets to improve speed and confidence.
