WRITING PART 4

Two emails

Task Overview

In Part 4, you will write two emails in response to a change. First, a short informal email to a friend, then, a longer formal email to an unknown person or organisation.

Key points:

- Two emails: informal (40–50 words) + formal (120–150 words)
- Both respond to a change
- Keep the style clearly different (friendly vs. formal)
- Focus on accuracy + organisation (about 30 mins)

General strategy

- Plan quickly: underline the change and note what you must include.
- Email 1: friendly and natural — Only a few sentences
- Email 2: polite and formal — clear paragraphs, neutral tone, specific requests.
- Final 2–3 minutes: check spelling, verb forms, and missing information.

In this chapter, you will:

- Learn a clear structure for informal vs. formal emails (and what language to avoid).
- Practise typical Part 4 situations and useful phrases for explaining problems, asking questions, and making requests.
- Complete full Part 4 tasks in exam conditions.

Writing Part 4: exam practice

Exam Reminder:

- You can take notes to plan on a separate piece of paper.
- We recommend typing your answers on a computer to best simulate exam conditions

Task 1: Food club

You received this email from the club.

From: Green Spoon Food Club
Dear Member,

Next month we are planning a special evening about healthy eating habits, and we are looking for one or two volunteers to give a short talk (3–5 minutes). Please note that the meeting will start earlier than usual: we will begin at 6:30 pm instead of 8:00 pm. If you would be happy to give a short talk, please reply this week with a brief summary of your talk topic.
Kind regards,
Club president

1: Write an email to your friend. Write about your feelings and what you are planning to do. (approximately 50 words)

2: Write an email to the president of the club. Write about your feelings and what you would like to do. (120-150 words)

Task 2: Language course

You received this email from the school.

From: Seif English Academy
Dear student,

We are writing to inform you that your teacher, Ms Carter, will not be able to teach your class for the next four weeks, so you will have a different teacher during this time. We apologise for any inconvenience and we will do our best to keep the course plan the same. If you have any questions about this change, please let us know. Additionally, we would be grateful for your feedback on the course so far — what you have enjoyed and what you would like to improve.
Kind regards,
Seif English Academy

1: Write an email to your friend. Write about your feelings about the change and your course so far. (approximately 50 words)

2: Write an email to the school. Write about your feelings, any questions and give feedback on your course. (120-150 words)
